

April, 2010

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

220 Montgomery Street, Suite 400 • San Francisco, CA 94104 • 415-501-9098 • drkkolmes@hushmail.com • CA License PSY 21284

EDUCATION:

- 2003 CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY, ALAMEDA, CA
Psy.D. in Clinical Psychology
- 1992 UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL, NC
B.A. in Drama and Certificate in Women's Studies

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE:

June 2008 – Present KEELY KOLMES PSYCHOTHERAPY PRACTICE
Private Practice San Francisco, CA

Provided brief and ongoing individual and relationship therapy services to private practice clients. Also provided consultation to other mental health professionals on LGBT, kink and poly issues. Provided consultation to other professionals on internet and technology issues.

October 2008 – April 2010 STANFORD UNIVERSITY
Triage Services COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
8 hours weekly Stanford, CA

Provide triage services to students seeking therapy at CAPS. Administer brief telephone intake and make appropriate referrals to students to CAPS clinician, outside therapists, or emergency on-call services.

October 2005 – June 2008 STANFORD UNIVERSITY
Staff Psychologist COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
24 - 28 hours weekly Stanford, CA

Provided 16 weekly hours of brief therapy to students. Participated in staff meetings and case consultation. Consulted with Director of Vaden Health Center on policy issues relevant to LGBT students. Provided training to Interns on working with LGBT students and obtaining licensure. Provided on-call coverage. Co-led grief and bereavement workshop and sexual orientation support group. Co-wrote APA Accreditation Self-study with CAPS Training Director. Supervised a Postdoctoral Fellow.

August 2004 - August 2005 STANFORD UNIVERSITY
Postdoctoral Fellow COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
32 hours weekly Stanford, CA

Provided 18 weekly hours of brief therapy to highly diverse, largely international population of undergraduate and graduate students. Carried several long-term cases. Training included on-call crisis management, consultation to campus community, and outreach services by request. Participated in individual and group supervision, didactic trainings, staff meetings, and intern process group. Consulted with multidisciplinary teams regarding multicultural issues, psychiatric medication, referrals, and eating disorders. Provided on-call coverage for a week during summer quarter. Co-led grief and bereavement workshops for campus community.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE:

(continued)

April 2004 - August 2004
Registered Psychologist
14 hours weekly

FAMILY INSTITUTE OF PINOLE CLINIC
Pinole, CA

Provided brief individual, couples, and family therapy for thirteen clients a week. Received weekly supervision to build skills working with children and families dealing with poverty, substance abuse, foster care system, involvement of child protective services, and issues of neglect, abuse, and domestic violence.

July 2002 - July 2003
Predoctoral Intern
40 hours weekly

FAMILY INSTITUTE OF PINOLE CLINIC
Pinole, CA

Provided individual, couples, and family therapy for twenty clients a week, most of whom received Victim of Crime funding as a result of experiencing trauma. Worked with depression, anxiety, PTSD, domestic violence, child abuse/neglect with African-American, Latino, and Caucasian clients. Co-led adolescent group. Participated in weekly narrative reflecting teams and weekly supervision based upon live and videotaped client sessions. Attended weekly trainings on therapy with children, families, and multi-stressed populations.

June 2000 - September 2000
Psychological Intern
Summer Intensive Program
24 hours weekly

SUNSET MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES
San Francisco, CA

Provided therapy in a day treatment program for the chronically mentally ill. Led three primary therapy groups and saw four individual clients weekly. Co-led four weekly activity groups (music therapy, sex education, daily living skills, and living with mental illness) and provided milieu therapy for up to fifty psychotic clients. Responsible for intakes, closing cases, and providing crisis intervention. Consulted regularly with other professionals

August 1999 - June 2000
Psychological Intern
Family & Couples Track
24 hours weekly

SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY COUNSELING
CENTER & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
Rohnert Park, CA

Provided sixteen hours of brief therapy and crisis intervention to university community. Provided longer-term therapy to families and couples. Participated in weekly trainings covering systemic and narrative therapy, staff meetings, group process and group supervision. Participated in weekly reflecting teams with families and couples. Received weekly supervision based on audiotaped sessions with clients.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

PROFESSIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE:

(continued)

September 1998 - June 1999

Psychological Trainee

Individual Track

16 hours weekly

SONOMA STATE UNIVERSITY COUNSELING
CENTER & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
Rohnert Park, CA

Provided brief therapy and crisis intervention to eight clients weekly in university community. Involved with planning workshops, groups, and campus outreach. Participated in weekly trainings covering short-term psychodynamic work and Red Flags issues. Attended staff meetings, group process and group supervision. Received weekly individual supervision based on audiotaped sessions with clients.

September 1997 - June 1998

Psychological Trainee

16 hours weekly

SAN LEANDRO COMMUNITY COUNSELING
San Leandro, CA

Provided counseling to high-risk junior high and high school students in grades 6-12. Led six groups and saw four individual clients weekly. Clients varied widely in ethnicity, sexual orientation, and socio-economic status. Interfaced with families, school personnel, and social service agencies. Participated in weekly trainings and individual/group supervision.

RELATED WORK EXPERIENCE:

September 1997 - January 1998

Student/Evaluator

CALIFORNIA SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL
PSYCHOLOGY
Alameda, CA

Completed professional field evaluation on the 1st International Conference on Parents with Disabilities and Their Families. Consulted with Through the Looking Glass, the conference sponsor, and collaborated with team on how to conduct evaluation, aspects to assess, and instruments to use. Attended the conference and conducted all stages of the evaluation, including coding and analyzing the results and writing the final report.

November 1996 - July 1997

Psychological Trainee

8 hours weekly

AIDS PROJECT OF THE EAST BAY
Oakland, CA

Provided intake and assessment of client needs through administering a comprehensive evaluation included assessment of psychological functioning. Conducted ongoing psychosocial case management. Received training in social and practical daily aspects of living with AIDS. Provided emergency services to clinically diverse population of clients—predominantly African-American, Latino, homosexual, transgender, and IV-drug-using people living with HIV/AIDS.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

RELATED WORK EXPERIENCE:

(continued)

September 2003 – May 2004
Teaching Assistant/Supervisor
The Intensive
3 hours weekly

MARY HERGET, PH.D.
ARGOSY UNIVERSITY
Point Richmond, CA

Invited by Mary Herget to provide live supervision for two therapists and their reflecting teams of approximately seven students each. Participated in weekly teams with ongoing therapy clients. Provided additional assistance as needed for semester-long course.

April 1998 – Present
Professional Consultation
90 minutes weekly

PRIVATE CONSULTATION GROUP
Oakland, CA

Organized a weekly consultation group with two other colleagues. Discuss clinical, ethical, and legal issues as well as other professional development concerns. Group represents diverse cultural perspectives and a range of clinical practice. Group's theoretical perspectives include psychodynamic, feminist, cognitive behavioral, humanist, systemic, and narrative approaches.

September 1990 - October 1991
Information Specialist

AMERICAN SOCIAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION/
NATIONAL AIDS HOTLINE
Research Triangle Park, NC

Provided information, education, and referrals about HIV and AIDS to anonymous callers on national hotline. Participated in 40-hour training program covering HIV/AIDS information and communication techniques. Attended regular inservices to update knowledge and skills.

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE:

June 1993 - August 1996
Computer Consultant

MACINTOSH COMPUTER CONSULTING
NY and CA

As self-employed computer consultant, trained and supported individuals and businesses in New York and California. Provided telephone and in-person technical support and training. Introduced clients to internet. Beta-tested CD-ROMs and provided feedback on their development.

August 1992 - August 1993
Retail Worker

EVE'S GARDEN
New York, NY

Worked in women's sexuality boutique. Provided a safe and informative environment for discussing sexuality, body issues, and safer-sex information. Position required an awareness of community health and sexuality issues and sensitivity to survivors of rape and incest. Clientele represented various sexual, ethnic, and cultural identities.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE:

September 2008 – March 2009
Clinical Supervisor

NEW LEAF SERVICES
San Francisco, CA

Volunteered as clinical supervisor to MFT Intern working with LGBT clients. Provided one weekly hour of clinical supervision.

February 1999 - November 2000
Founder/Facilitator

EAST BAY SAPPHIC SINGLES
Oakland, CA

Created monthly discussion/social group for bisexual and lesbian women in the East Bay. Handled administrative tasks related to maintaining an email list for 120 women, wrote monthly announcements, and facilitated each monthly discussion for up to twenty attendees.

September 1988 - May 1992
Gay Lesbian Outreach Educator

CAROLINA GAY LESBIAN ASSOCIATION
Chapel Hill, NC

Participated in question/answer panels regarding lesbian and bisexual issues, as student volunteer. Held office hours and counseled students on a drop-in basis. Contributed articles to LAMBDA, the CGLA newsletter.

December 1990 - June 1991
Outreach Educator

LESBIAN GAY HEALTH PROJECT/GAY
LESBIAN TASK FORCE
Durham, NC

Involved in both AIDS outreach education (in community and on university campuses) and gay/lesbian outreach education on a volunteer basis.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING:

April 2002 - May 2002
SAN FRANCISCO SEX INFORMATION
SEX EDUCATOR TRAINING
60 hour training

PUBLICATIONS:

Kolmes, K., Stock, W., Moser, C. (2003) Investigating bias in psychotherapy with BDSM clients. Journal of Homosexuality, 50 (3/4).

Kolmes, K (2003) BDSM consumers of mental health services: the need for culturally sensitive care. Doctoral dissertation, CSPP-AIU. Reprinted and catalogued by CSPP-AIU library.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS:

Kolmes, K. (2010, April), Continuing education session: Friending, Fanning, and Following: Findings on Client-Therapist Internet Interactions and Their Influence on Treatment, 2010 California Psychological Association Convention, Costa Mesa, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2010, April), Invited speaker: The Web 2.0 Psychotherapist: The Therapeutic Relationship and Social Media, San Francisco Center for Psychoanalysis, San Francisco, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2010, February), Continuing education: Clinical, ethical, and etchnical issues in therapy with LGBT clients, Gaylesta, San Francisco, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2009, October), Invited one day continuing education training: Clinical and Ethical Issues Related to Social Networking and College Mental Health, Northern California Training Directors Conference, UCSF, San Francisco, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2009, July), Invited training: Providing Disability Affirmative Therapy, Stanford University Counseling and Psychological Services Predoctoral Intern Seminar, Stanford, CA.

Kolmes, K (2009, May), Invited speaker: Writing the Dissertation, The Wright Institute class on Proposal Design, The Wright Institute, Berkeley, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2009, April), Invited training: Working with Transgender College Students, Stanford University Counseling and Psychological Services Predoctoral Intern Seminar, Stanford, CA.

Kolmes, K. (2009, April), Panel: Social Networking, Visibility, and the Therapeutic Alliance, Mental Health Camp, Vancouver, B.C.

Kolmes, K. & Roche, T. (2009, March), Panel: Therapy 2.0: Mental Health for Geeks, SXSW Interactive 2009 Core Conversation, Austin, TX.

CURRENT PROJECTS:

Kolmes, K. & Taube, D.O. (in progress). Boundary blurring in cyberspace: Clinical implications of therapist-client contact.

Keely Kolmes, Psy.D.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

American Psychological Association (APA) (Member)
California Psychological Association (Member)

PROFESSIONAL REFERENCES: Available upon request.